A Farmer's Sub-Alliance was organized during the evening of Saturday, formed Mr. August Siebert who had our citizens are taking a more active March 17th, at the Sauer's schoolizer Clopp, of Madison Co. A big crowd of farmers was present. Clopp made a speech, in which he said that merchants and mechanics were organized for self-protection, and that it was the duty of furmers to form associations for a similar purpose. Now they were being fleeced of their legal rights because they were not united for self-defense. Down in Madison Co. agents of railroads and land speculators succeeded in getting the board of equalization to assess their land at 10 cents an acre while that on farmers was assessed at from $3 to $5 an acre.
